STILL STRIKING!

ers March on Jeddo Mines.

The Powder Question Yet to Be Arbitrated.

A Missouri Bank Robbery, With the Usual Killing.

DEAD FROM HEART DISEASE.

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 18.—About 800 miners made a descent on No. 4 of the Jeddo mines at Markles at 5 o'clock this morning, and made an effort to close the colliery of that place. John Markle, managing partner of the firm, expostulated with the strikers, urging them to disperse. They, however, remained in the vicinity of Oakdale, marching until 7:30 o'clock, when they went back home. No one was seriously hurt, but one man going to work was beaten, and others menaced. The strikers claim that they shut the colliery up, but information given out at the mine office is to the effect that the mine still is working.

THE POWDER QUESTION.

Hazleton, Oct. 18.—The settlement of the strike of the anthracite mine workers is undoubtedly blocked by the price the miners will be asked in future for powder. The employers agreed to give the men 10 per cent more wages, but insist on figuring a net advance of $1.25 in keg powder, to be taken into consideration. The miners apparently want to arbitrate the powder question. It is not believed that the mine owners will grant any such demand.

MISSOURI BANK ROBBERY.

Robbers Seize Booty, Besides Killing the Town Constable.

Nevada, Mo., Oct. 18.—The Farmers' bank was entered by three masked men before daylight. They dynamited the safe and secured about $3,000, the entire contents, it is stated. Constable William Maron, who heard the explosion, fired into the darkness to alarm the town. The robbers returned, the fire, killing Maron instantly. Sheriff Ewing, with a posse and bloodhounds, started in pursuit of the robbers.

A Captain Dropped Dead.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 18.—Capt. John B. Adams, of Lynn, past commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, dropped dead at the state house this afternoon. Death was due to heart trouble. He was fifty-nine years of age.

Negro Murderer Lynched.

Plaquemine, La., Oct. 18.—MURPHY Johnson, a negro, who shot and dangerously wounded Conductor Will Jordan of the Texas & Pacific road on Wednesday night, near Clinton Rouge, was lynched this morning.

Subject to Tariff.

Berne, Oct. 18.—Owing to failure to agree to the new commercial treaty, United States goods will henceforth be subject to the Swiss general tariff, instead of most favored nation treatment.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

Jose G. Chavez, the Santa Fe railway live stock adjuster, was here today on business connected with his department. He returned to Los Lunas this afternoon.

Miss May Parr returned yesterday morning from a trip to La Junta. She was surprised to find that the Journal-Democrat had her married to a man named Miller who, as she has since learned, is a married man and resides in Denver with his wife. Miss Parr will leave to-morrow morning for Nevada, Mo., where she will make her home in the future with relatives.

Mace Crossan has returned to the city from Hot Springs, Arkansas, and expects to cast his vote at the November election in this city. He states that his father, Edith Crossan, who was very near dying a few weeks ago, being sick for some time with a most aggravated case of malaria and typhoid fever. Mace also states that he will not be a candidate for the city council.

KRUGER'S FEARS!

Believed Boers Would Attack Him.

China Completely at Mercy of Her Foes.

Lieut. Hobson, the Kisser, Remembered at a Street Fair.

MONFY POUCH DISAPPEARS.

Lorenzo Marques, Oct. 18.—Mr. Kruger was secretly taken at 5 o'clock this morning on board the Dutch cruiser Gelderland, on which vessel he is to sail for Holland. The reason given for Kruger's embarkation is that he feared the Boers here would attack him. The feeling of the refugees against Kruger for fleeing from the country is very strong.

BOERS STILL FIGHTING.

London, Oct. 18.—Lord Roberts reports from Pretoria: A party of Boers got into Jagersfontein, on the night of October 18, and a fight ensued in the morning, our loss eleven killed. The Boers lost their commandant and twenty killed. Kelly-Kenny dispatched a column under Hughes-Hallett, which should reach Jagersfontein today.

BELOUGHS TO BRITISH.

Lorenzo Marques, Oct. 18.—Local railroad employees have been instructed to hand over to the British all the rolling stock of the Netherlands railroad company.

NEWSPAPERS FROM CHINA.

French Troops Take a Town—Mandarin Responsible for Trouble.

London, Oct. 18.—A dispatch from Shanghai says that a thousand French troops have taken T'ungchow, on the northern border of Hunan province.

GROSS MISGOVERNMENT.

Shanghai, Oct. 18.—Sun Yat Sen, former and other so-called rebels, have issued a manifesto to local mandarins of the Yangtze valley, denouncing the gross misgovernment of the Manchu dynasty, and promising not to interfere with native converts.

MANDARINS RESPONSIBLE.

Hong Kong, Oct. 18.—The rebels are strongly established with headquarters at Wuhu. Their leaders, apparently, are Kang Yu Wei, have issued a manifesto proclaiming China completely at the mercy of her foes, for which the mandarins are entirely responsible. The rebels have gone northward toward Canton.

CABINET MEETING.

Washington, Oct. 18.—The cabinet meeting today was devoted principally to consideration of the Chinese situation. After the meeting the members seemed impressed with the favorable turn matters had taken and the prospect of satisfactory adjustment. The government has received the proposals of Li Hung Chang and Prince Ching offering indemnity and guarantee for the future, and they have been accepted in good faith. The cabinet considered the Chinese government in advance of last night's event was the calling upon the newly married people of the future, and they have been accepted in good faith.
